

Thought for the week:
Every act formed by charity is revelation of God. Every word of truth and love, every hand extended in kindness, echoes the inner life of the Trinity.

Gabriel Moran

We are very privileged in St. Teilo's this morning to welcome our baptism party, and all family members and friends. It is a truly wonderful occasion!

Tonight at 7pm in St. Teilo's is a service using the worshipping style and music of the Taizé community. All welcome.

Caroline is interviewing on Tuesday of this week during the day.

The PCC meets on Tuesday at 7.30pm in St. Michael's and so the Bible Study Group has been cancelled for that evening. Please remember that Caroline can't be at the Bible Group on June 20th.

The grand and amazing Strawberry Tea is finally here this coming Saturday! Hurray! There are just some tickets left - see Lyn in St. Michael's: only £3.50 - cheap as scones!

And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

Collect of the day:

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

The reader says: A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Isaiah 40: 12-17; 27-31

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, or as his counsellor has instructed him? Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust. Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God"? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

The reader says: A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew

Response:

Glory to you, O Lord

Matthew 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

After the Gospel:

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Response:

Praise to you, O Christ.
